A word from Philip Bromiley our Team Rector

The poet Sir John Betjeman famously wrote this about Christmas:

And girls in slacks remember Dad
And oafish louts remember Mum
And sleepless children's hearts are glad
And Christmas morning bells say 'Come!'
Even to shining ones who dwell
Safe in the Dorchester hotel
And is it true? And is it true?
This most tremendous tale of all
Seen in a stained glass window's hue
A baby in an ox's stall?

Is it true? Is it true? There's no doubt that our churches will see many people crossing the threshold at Christmas. Carols' Services, Nativities, School services, Christingles, as well as the services on Christmas Eve and in the morning. We welcome people to explore and engage with the Christmas miracle in any way they want to.

Is this yearly observance purely Christmas sentimentality? Or, is it true? If it is true, then 2000 years ago, God really did break into human history and a woman really was used by God miraculously. Truth is everything. Winston Churchill said, "Truth is incontrovertible, malice may attack it and ignorance may deride it, but, in the end, there it is."

They say Christmas is for children. Great, let's become children again! Let's accept these truths at face value. My daughter Rosie said to me once, "it's nice to remember Jesus coming at Christmas, but Jesus is here all the time." How true.

Have you noticed how frosty weather is splendid for showing off the spiders' webs in the hedges? It's amazing to think that those webs are there all the time, but we easily forget about them. Life goes on and all the time these beautiful webs are waiting to be revealed. Christmas is a moment of revelation again. Truth is highlighted once more. We are reminded that God sent His Son to us.

A pastor called Peter Larson, said this - 'Despite our efforts to keep him out, God intrudes. The life of Jesus is bracketed by two impossibilities: a virgin's womb and an empty tomb. Jesus entered our world through a door marked "No Entrance" and left through a door marked "No Exit".'

Have a truly blessed Christmas and New Year.
Rev'd Philip Bromiley (Team Rector)
