Sandy & Graham Ball perform a broad repertoire of traditional and contemporary songs, as well as songs that Sandy herself has written. Graham is renowned for his subtle accompaniments on guitar, mandolin and cittern, and Sandy is a highly regarded singer. Together they create a spellbinding musical experience that appeals to a wide range of audiences.

Mike Scott is one of the finest songwriters you can hear today. His lyrics will make you think, laugh and cry - he's a must-see performer who delights audiences throughout the South West and beyond.

Ray Bradfield is a superb instrumentalist, singer and songwriter who is admired by audiences and fellow musicians alike. His songs are passionate and lyrical and reflect experiences of life which are both personal and universal.

The final part of the evening will feature a unique musical collaboration between Sandy & Graham and Ray (and they may even persuade Mike to join them!) - mostly up-tempo, foot-tapping stuff that will make you want to join in.
